Description

Beautiful pair of large Napoleon III style candelabras in black Belgian marble and gilded bronze, with five light arms, decorated with friezes of ram's heads. Dimensions: H 70 cm, W 38cm. A pair of Napoleon III-style candelabra. These candelabra are typically made of gilded bronze and black marble, like the ones pictured. They feature opulent decorations, including relief inlays and rams' heads as handles on the vase, characteristic of the 19th century. Each candelabra has five arms (or flames) for candles, with a central candle holder and four curved arms branching out. They are considered antiques and collector's items, often dating from 1850 to 1870.
