Description

Rocaille planter in solid 800 silver, Germany - Bruckmann & Söhne, late 19th century Small oval planter in solid 800/1000 silver, elegantly decorated in a historicist Rocaille style, resting on four arched legs adorned with volutes and stylized acanthus. The body is gadrooned and enhanced with lateral Rococo cartouches, one left blank for possible personalization. The upper edge has a delicate undulating movement with ribboned moldings. It comes with its removable inner tray in silver-plated brass, perfectly suited to floral use without altering the silver setting. This tray retains a natural patina, intentionally preserved to emphasize its authenticity. The visible hallmarks include the 800 thousandths fineness, typical of silver of the German Silbertandardsnorme, as well as the hallmark of
