Description

Elegant pair of armchairs in solid mahogany and mahogany veneer, from the Restoration period. The base is composed of two front legs in "frog leg" and two saber legs at the back. The armrests are finished with scrolls and rest on console supports, also decorated with scrolls. The backrest is slightly curved outwards, the top is nicely arched and fretted. The upholstery of these armchairs, as well as the covering fabric have been completely redone recently, the seat is therefore firm and very comfortable. The covering fabric is a corduroy in old gold color with a studded finish, all in very good condition
