Picardy Grandfather Clock With Arinthod Jura Movement, 18th Century

750 EUR

Signature : Joseph Chevassus fils à Arinthod

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oak

Width : 26 à 52 à la corniche

Height : 251 cm

Depth : 22 à 35 cm

Description

Solid oak floor clock of very fine cabinetmaking quality with generous moldings of Picardy origin. The clockwork mechanism was entrusted to Joseph Chevassus fils in Arinthod in the Jura (Arinthod is a French commune located in the Jura department in the cultural and historical region of Franche-Comté.) Movement with enameled dial with Roman numerals, surmounted by an openwork bronze decoration with a sun supported by two angels, brass hands with a sun decoration; mechanism recently revised with its weights and winding key, pendulum in the shape of a brass lens. Picardy late 18th or early 19th century Very good condition, perfectly maintained. Total height 251 cm - widths from 26 to 52 cm - depths from 22 to 35 cm.

Dealer

Vidal Antiquaires

antique dealer, trade welcome,english spoken- habla Espagnol

Tel : 03 23 81 10 97

Mobile : 06 07 98 54 79

Fax : vidalantiquaires@live.fr

16, rue du Général Foy

ham 80400