Description

18th century family tree of the Pierre Caluze family whose members held several interesting positions: gendarme of the king's ordinary guard, in charge of the criminal registry of the court in parlement, ordinary gentleman of Monsieur Frère unique du roi... Pierre Caluze's practice in the criminal registry at the beginning of the 17th century is well known from archival sources: - On April 29, 1623, he had Gilles Hebert and his wife arrested for witchcraft, imprisoned in the Conciergerie. - On June 22, 1627, he had François de Montmorency and François de Rosmadecq arrested, the latter having fled after a duel in Place Royale and the death of the Marquis de Bussy d'Amboise.
