PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Decorative Plaque In Longwy Earthenware Signed Jacques Peiffer

1 800 EUR

Signature : Jacques Peiffer (1947 - 2025)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

Rare decorative plaque composed of 15 Longwy earthenware tiles representing a founder of the Longwy Enamels factory. Signed and dated lower left J. Peiffer 1987. Dimensions on view: 46 cm x 76 cmJacques Peiffer, born in 1947 in Mont-Saint-Martin and died in 2025, is a French sculptor and ceramist, originally from the agglomeration of Longwy, an emblematic city of earthenware. Self-taught and trained in arts, sciences and philosophy, he combined artistic creation and technical research. In 1978, he founded the Saint-Jean l'Aigle earthenware factory with his wife and developed innovative techniques such as digital imaging on ceramics. Awarded Meilleur Ouvrier de France in 1986, he received several distinctions for his innovations. He also participated in the restoration of

Dealer

Antiquités Denis RUGA

Art nouveau, glassware, furniture, paintings, sculptures, leather goods

Tel : 06 78 54 20 51

13 rue Stanislas

Nancy 54000

monuments and published works on the history of enamels. A defender of the arts and crafts, he plays an active role in promoting them on a national scale.