Description

Standing partridge in molded-pressed and partially satin-finished crystal. The model was created by René Lalique (1860-1945) on January 5, 1939, then continued in 1947 under no. 1341 and was taken up again after 1951 under no. 11-610 (ref. Marcilhac 1235 page 494).. The rendering of the anatomy and plumage of the bird is of great finesse and delicate realism. Signed "Lalique France" at the tip under the base, indicating that it is a work made after the death of René Lalique. Very slight chip at the beak. Good general condition. From the 20th century. Dimensions: H: 17.5 cm L: 14 cm W: 8 cm
