

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

---

Antonio Secci, Brutalist Abstract Painting, Mixed Media On Panel, Italy Milano 1969

750 EUR

Signature : ANTONIO SECCI

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 58

Height : 99

Depth : 3

Description

Antonio Secci - Abstract Brutalist

PaintingPainting in mixed media and oil on panel, finished under resin. Created in Milan, Italy, in 1969.Perfect condition, preserved in its original frame.Dimensions with frame: 99 × 58

cmDimensions without frame: 51 × 41

cmBiographyAntonio Secci (1944-2024) was an Italian painter born in Dorgali, Sardinia. He studied at the Brera Academy of Fine Arts in Milan, where he began his career in the 1960s. Influenced by the Italian spatialist movement, his work explores the interplay between matter, light, and space through abstract and brutalist compositions, often executed in oil on panel or canvas.In the 1970s, Secci returned to Sardinia and settled in Cala Gonone, where he opened his studio. Deeply inspired by the natural

Dealer

Galerie Pignolet

20th century objects and furniture

Mobile : 0032 498 295 815

53 Chaussée de Waterloo

Namur 5000

surroundings, he pursued his exploration of form and texture until his death in 2024. His oeuvre is defined by a liberated approach to abstraction, in constant dialogue with the Mediterranean landscape and light.

Packaging and Delivery Costs
Pick-up from the gallery: Free
Delivery in Belgium: EUR40
Delivery in France:

EUR80
Delivery in Europe: EUR100
Delivery

worldwide: EUR250