Description

This exquisite 19th century French sofa epitomizes the timeless elegance of Louis XVI-inspired design, with its perfectly balanced proportions, refined carved details, and luminous gilded finish. Hand-crafted in solid wood and adorned with a warm, naturally aged gold patina, it reflects the authenticity and charm of a true period piece. The seat and backrest are upholstered in a luxurious damask silk fabric, richly textured with delicate woven motifs that subtly catch the light. This refined choice of upholstery enhances the sophistication of the gilded frame, making the sofa a statement piece in any elegant interior. The sofa rests on fluted, tapered legs, a hallmark of neoclassical French craftsmanship, bringing both stability and lightness to the overall silhouette. Gentle wear to
