

Early 19th Century Georgian Oak & Burr Elm Inlay Dresser Base

4 100 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oak

Width : 184

Height : 86

Depth : 56

Description

Charming Early 19th Century Oak and Burr Elm Inlay Dresser Base This stunning early 19th-century dresser base, crafted from late Georgian oak and adorned with intricate burr elm inlay, is a remarkable piece that beautifully combines historical craftsmanship with aesthetic elegance. Its design reflects the sophistication and functionality of the period, making it a valuable addition to any collection or home setting. Burr elm crossbanded top with molded edge above 2 long and 2 short burr elm cross banded drawers. The central section with 3 graduated burr elm crossbanded drawers flanked by paneled cupboard doors with marquetry inlaid star. Original brass handles. Excellent color and patination. The molded oak paneled sides with molded detail to the frame and pinned

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

construction speak to the meticulous craftsmanship of the era. The outstanding rich warm color and patina of the elm wood reflect its well-preserved condition and add a sense of warmth and history to any space. This dresser base cupboard is not just a piece of furniture; it is a testament to the enduring quality and beauty of late 18th-century, early 19th-century English craftsmanship.