The mixed hair fringes are in good condition, they often include goat, sheep, camel, horsehair wool. These mixtures are found in most ethnic rugs from Iran, Central Asia and the Caucasus. The muted colors of a shiny and soft wool contrast with the clear, indigot, white, pink, orange, blue, red of all the patterns placed on the darker field, causing a striking and luminous contrast. These rugs are essentially dyed with natural, mineral and vegetable products. The design of a beautiful complexity, reveals many tribal motifs and other stylized plants that are always found on these rugs. These rugs are knotted in the region of Shiraz located near the ancient Persepolis which gave its name to Persia, today, Iran. Shiraz is located in the province of Fars, where the Gashghai tribes reside and produce rugs under the two names, Shiraz or Ghashghai.
