Description

This sumptuous 19th-century Bohemian red crystal liqueur set embodies the finesse and refinement of Central European glassmaking artistry. Comprising an elegant carafe and eight matching glasses, it captivates with its brilliance and richly detailed craftsmanship. The deep ruby-red crystal is meticulously hand-cut, revealing delicate motifs of leaves and grape clusters--traditional symbols of conviviality and the pleasure of tasting. Each piece reflects the remarkable artisanal skill of Bohemian glassmakers, whose reputation extended far beyond the borders of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Romantic in style, enhanced with baroque touches, the set exudes a noble and timeless allure. Originally intended for elegant receptions, it was used to serve liqueurs or digestifs while
