Description

Portrait of a redheaded woman; oil painting on paper and varnish by Yves Motti (1949-2017). The artist, born in Biarritz to Basque-Italian parents, was trained at the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Bayonne by the painter Casama. In private collections in Spain, England, Belgium, Germany and the United States. The artist took his references in the art of figures from the 20th century such as Chagall, Soutine, Matisse, and Van Gogh but diverted them into his particular style, clearly approaching outsider art
