

17th Century Regency Brocatelle Linen And Silk Tapestry

2 300 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Length : 299 cm

Width : 121 cm

Description

"17th Century Regency Brocatelle Linen and Silk Tapestry Wall Hanging" This Regency - Louis XIV period wall hanging, made of 17th century brocatelle, is truly an exceptional piece. The combination of high-quality silk and linen in a large-scale floral pattern, in burgundy and rust shades on a golden base, makes it a textile treasure worthy of the finest homes of yesteryear. The style, of great richness, reflects all the magnificence of the Louis XIV era, with its generous and refined design that immediately captures the attention. The perfect condition of the piece is particularly remarkable for such an old textile, which testifies to its careful preservation over the centuries. With its dimensions of 299 cm in height and 121 cm in width, the wall hanging is ideal for ambitious

Dealer

Galerie Rose Couleur

French antiques textiles

Mobile : 06 12 29 60 53

13, Les Arènes

Névian 11200

decorative projects or for adding a touch of luxury to a collector's item. The offer of the "Rose Couleur" gallery highlights a rare and precious object, which will be perfect for collectors and enthusiasts of historical textiles. The price of 2300 euros reflects the rarity and quality of the piece. Points to highlight: Period: 17th century, Louis XIV - Regency Material: Silk and linen brocatelle Pattern: Floral, burgundy/rust on a gold background Dimensions: 299 cm x 121 cm (with a 12 cm border) Condition: Very good condition This wall hanging is more than just a textile, it is a true testament to the luxury and refinement of a bygone era. It would be a magnificent addition to any collection of antique textiles or a statement piece in a classical or baroque-inspired interior. ref 071221