Black Patina Bronze Group "Angel and Nymph," Romantic Period circa 1830-1840

MLD Antiquités Collection: This beautiful French Romantic period bronze group is not displayed in our gallery; it is carefully kept within our private collection.

Description:

It is a decorative and elegant ensemble, finely chiseled with a black patina, depicting a symbolic Annunciation scene. An angel, having laid down its quiver and bow, stands before a nymph seated on a mound, evoking a moment of revelation or divine message. The ensemble rests on a base of green marble.
