

Ogoni Mask Nigeria Ram.

1 200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Ogoni mask, the Ogonis live in the south of Nigeria, an isolated people who were known late, we know their masks with articulated jaws, rarer are these crest masks with a schematized ram's head, almost abstract; This one is in good condition with a lumpy ash patina, due to the spraying of millet beer by the shaman then the throwing of ashes, flours ... Beautiful patina of use, circa 1950, from a private collection, total height 31 cm.

Dealer

Galerie d'art Thierry Brusquet

Antiquités, art premier et curiosités, peinture contemporaine .

Mobile : 0618181148

86 Avenue la Fayette

Rochefort 17300