Description

SZULMAN (François), painter born in Paris on June 5, 1931 (Ec. Fr.), Just after the Second World War, he was admitted to the School of Applied Arts in Paris. He abandoned his artistic studies to help support his family but quickly returned to painting as a professional painter. This is how he exhibited at the Salon des Indépendants from 1951 and then at other equally renowned salons such as the Salon d'Automne, the Peintres Témoins de leurs Temps, the Nationale des Beaux-Arts etc... His first solo exhibition took place in 1967 in Paris in the Régis Langlois gallery. It was a success and the craze for his painting continued to grow among amateurs and collectors. A landscape painter, he draws his themes from everyday life. His falsely naive style allowed him to stand out with a
