

Set Of Three Paris Porcelain Cups

1 250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Porcelain

Description

Elegant set of three finely openwork Paris porcelain bowls, resting on richly decorated pedestals. Each bowl features a crisscross pattern enhanced with fine gold gilding, highlighted by a gilded scalloped edge. The bases, finely molded with rocaille motifs and foliate elements, are punctuated with pale green enamel highlights. The larger central bowl is flanked by two slightly lower side bowls, forming a harmonious and balanced composition. French work from the end of the 19th century. Note the two small bowls are cracked inside.
