Description

This refined French demilune commode is a superb example of late 19th Century Louis XVI revival craftsmanship. Its delicate proportions and graceful curved front make it ideal as a statement piece in a chic bedroom, refined hallway, or elegant living room. The commode features three drawers framed by fluted pilasters and resting on tapered legs capped with bronze sabots. The top is crowned with a fine white veined marble surface, beautifully framed by an openwork gilt-brass gallery. The subtle symmetry and harmonious lines are signature elements of the Louis XVI style, lending timeless sophistication to this compact yet stately piece. Crafted in warm-toned walnut, the cabinet is finished with understated bronze knobs and exquisite dovetail joinery. A notable detail that sets this piece apart
