Description

Large Art Deco Solid Oak Table by Henri Bonjour, 1930s. Henri Bonjour was a French furniture maker active in the early 20th century, based in Lyon. In 1900, he took over Honoré Dufin's workshops, perpetuating his quality craftsmanship. His house, Henri Bonjour & Cie, is renowned for its Gothic and Art Deco style creations, combining noble woods, fine marquetry, and chrome-plated metal elements. His works, such as bookcases, beds, and sideboards, are now prized by collectors and exhibited at specialized auctions. His furniture embodies the elegance and refinement of 20th-century French design. Discover all our other products on our website: www.llantiquites.com
