Description

Dramatic maritime scene painted in oil on canvas, signed lower right H. Holk and dated 1933. The work depicts two shipwrecked people drifting on a makeshift raft in a raging sea. One of them, standing, desperately tries to attract the attention of a possible rescuer, while the other lies exhausted on the driftwood. Around them, the powerful waves and the gulls in flight reinforce the sense of urgency and distress. The composition, with its romantic overtones, evokes the great shipwrecks of history, in an expressive and striking interpretation. Technique: Oil on canvas Signature: H. Holk (lower right), dated 1933 Dimensions: 101 x 77 cm (with frame) Condition: Good general condition, slight signs of age Framing: Original wooden frame Lightly cleaned
