Description

An extraordinary and rare monumental 19th-century Venetian mirror featuring an exceptionally precise micro-mosaic border set in a richly carved and gilded wooden frame. This remarkable piece is composed of meticulously hand-laid colored marble and semi-precious stone tesserae, forming an intricate array of floral motifs. The background is composed of shimmering gilded glass tesserae, adding depth, luminosity, and elegance. Likely a custom commission, due to its exceptional size and craftsmanship, this mirror is both a decorative masterpiece and a museum-worthy object. It can be displayed vertically or horizontally, offering great versatility for interior design. This mirror has minor historical restorations that do not detract from its integrity or value, and is overall
