Description

Elegant set of four hand-carved Italian marble sculptures, each representing one of the Four Seasons: Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter. Made in Italy in the 1980s, these finely detailed figures are carved from high-quality white marble. Each figure is adorned with seasonal attributes such as flowers, fruit, draperies, or mantles, capturing the essence of the classical theme. The statues stand on imposing marble bases that enhance their presence and visual impact. This timeless set is ideal for formal gardens, courtyards, or interior spaces seeking a classically harmonious decorative element. 180 x 90 x 40 cm Condition: Very good vintage condition. Light signs of wear consistent with age and outdoor exposure. All four figures are structurally sound and richly detailed.
