Description

A true testament to early 20th century craftsmanship, this two-light bouillotte lamp embodies the refinement and ingenuity of decorative objects of yesteryear. Its green shade, finely adorned with golden scrolls, diffuses a soft, subdued light, creating a cozy and elegant atmosphere. The central stem, a key element of its design, allows for practical adjustment of the shade's height and is distinguished by its top ring, which adds an additional aesthetic touch. The grooved shaft adds a subtle play of textures to the whole, enhancing the lamp's sophistication. Resting on a gilded metal base, this bouillotte lamp combines functionality and aesthetics, making it a coveted object for lovers of classic decoration and collectors. Its timeless charm continues to seduce and illuminate interiors with
