Description

Pair of wall lights from Maison Baguès, Paris Circa 1960 Two light arms in gilded metal and rock crystal. Urn-shaped decoration from which foliage and flower scrolls escape. Electricity redone. Very good condition. *Maison Baguès, founded in the 19th century, established itself in the 1920s thanks to Victor and Robert Baguès, who developed an emblematic range in wrought iron: chandeliers and wall lights with parrot and foliage motifs.
