Description

A beautiful portrait of an elegant racehorse equipped with its saddle, in profile with a pearl gray coat. This beautiful realistic canvas from the 1950s is a work by A. Kinson, who signed his canvas at the bottom right, a quality work in its period gilt and plastered frame as it should be. This beautiful painting of generous size is detailed and has beautiful colors, it poses on the racecourse with pride and it has a lot of class with its pretty light color and perfect line. This oil on canvas has everything to please, decorative and aristocratic, a beautiful painting not without interest for its beauty and its large size. This work is as the photo indicates in very good original condition and unretouched, and in its clear frame with large beveled molding
