Description

Pair of pure silk curtains, designed by Laura Ashley and made in India in the second half of the 20th century.
These curtains are in excellent condition (with a few tiny stains that should come out with washing), ready for use:They are lined with a cotton backing, giving them a flawless drape and effectively protecting the silk from ultraviolet rays.Each panel includes a gathered tape for American-style hanging, both practical and elegant.The fabric features a delicate silver floral pattern on a pale yellow background, typical of the romantic and country-inspired style that made Laura Ashley famous.
Founded in the 1950s, Laura Ashley is a renowned British brand, celebrated for its textile creations that blend refinement, softness, and
