Description

Magnificent and exceptional large display cabinet made of exotic wood. It opens with 12 glass and beveled doors. This bookcase is composed of two distinct parts. The lower part measures 100 cm in height with 15 cm legs. The upper part measures 150 cm in height. The total width of the bookcase is 300 cm. This display cabinet was custom-made for a former client who had paid 17,500 euros for it. It is indeed of very good quality. I decided to buy it because it fit perfectly in the back of my shop. However, I now want to change the decor. It is in very good overall condition. The shelves are made of thick, solid glass, capable of supporting heavy objects without any problem. I have even placed books on them without any worries. The exotic wood used for its construction gives it a luxurious and timeless
