Description

Medieval 'Venetian' ring in pure gold with a conical structure crafted in lace filigree, and a glass paste depicting a child's face set in the center. This precious and refined object demonstrates the Venetians' early interest in glass and filigree. The glass takes inspiration from Phoenician glass paste. The approximate dating is between the 12th and 13th centuries. Medieval 'Venetian' ring in pure gold (6.2 grams, size 17)
