Description

Saint Peter and Saint Paul, Two Altarpiece Elements From the 17th Century. Superb pair of 17th century carved panels representing Saint Peter and Saint Paul. This pair of altarpiece elements are in very good condition. The polychromy is very well preserved as well as a superb gold gilding. Carved in high relief, they form a very beautiful pendant. The drapes of the clothes are magnificent and very finely carved with a strong relief, the faces are beautiful and the Saints are accompanied by their usual attributes. The polychromy is taken up with floral motifs in the clothes. Softwood support. No restoration to report. Traces written in ink on the back, signature and marks. Two large altarpiece elements with the effigy of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, dating from the 17th century and very well
