Description

Limoges Porcelain Dessert Plates - Floral Elegance, circa 1920 Manufacture of Émile Madesclaire, LimogesA refined set of six dessert plates in fine Limoges porcelain, exemplifying the grace and craftsmanship of early 20th-century French tableware. Produced circa 1920 in the atelier of Émile Madesclaire--an esteemed porcelain maker who founded his Limoges workshop in 1920--these plates reflect the romantic sensibilities and artisanal excellence of the period.Each plate features a delicately hand-gilded scalloped rim, framing a central motif of soft pink roses interspersed with violet and yellow blossoms, set against tender green foliage. The floral composition, evocative of 19th-century decorative traditions, imparts a gentle charm and timeless elegance.Discover all
