Description

Here is a direct carving sculpture probably made in what I believe to be alabaster or onyx. It is a work from the 20th century representing a kneeling woman. The whole thing has a lot of allure, the sculpture weighs a lot. We report rubbing in various places, dirt, yellowish traces, restorations on the elbow, foot and hand, the work remains however in a good general condition. We sell it in its own juice, natural, untouched. We carried out a summary cleaning. We will not deliver by post for this type of item too fragile, but we work with carriers, please contact us for a quote. For the condition, please detail the photos. Do not hesitate to zoom. The photos are an integral part of the description.
