Description

Oil on canvas - Léon Devaux (20th century) Signed lower right, dated 1949. Peaceful maritime scene depicting several sailboats moving on a calm stretch of water. The artist subtly captures the reflections of the boats and sails in the water, giving the whole a serene and contemplative atmosphere. The balanced composition and the soft palette of blue and gray tones demonstrate Léon Devaux's technical mastery and poetic sensibility. This painting, typical of the figurative production of the mid-20th century, illustrates the artist's interest in seascapes and harbor atmospheres. An elegant work, ideal for lovers of maritime art or collectors of post-war French painting. Canvas dimensions: Length 41 cm (16.1 inches), Height 33 cm (13 inches). Frame dimensions: Length 41 cm (16.1
