

Medieval Procession Oil Painting Circle Of Sir John Gilbert, R.a., (1817-1897)

2 025 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Description

Circle of Sir John Gilbert, R.A., P.R.W.S. (1817-1897) - Medieval Procession, Oil on Canvas
An exquisite oil painting attributed to the Circle of Sir John Gilbert, R.A., P.R.W.S., renowned for his masterful depictions of historical and ceremonial scenes. This vibrant work captures a dramatic moment, likely set in the medieval or Renaissance period, showcasing an engaging procession or military display. At the heart of the composition, figures adorned in elaborate armor and helmets are depicted in dynamic movement, with one prominently playing a trumpet and another beating a drum--infusing the scene with rhythm and energy. The flags and banners that wave in the background suggest a celebratory or martial context, elevating the sense of pageantry and

Dealer

Bushells Antiques

Antiques and Jewellery

Mobile : +447956268290

71-75 Shelton Street

Covent Garden WC2H

tradition. The painting is framed in an ornate, dark-bordered frame with a contrasting lighter inner lining, which beautifully complements the rich colors and intricate details of the scene. The artist's deft use of color and movement brings this moment of honor and grandeur to life, offering a striking visual representation of historical pageantry. Provenance: Lot 234, Live Auction of British and Victorian Pictures, London (South Kensington), 7 November 2002. Dimensions: With Frame: 52.5 x 35.5 cm Without Frame: 42 x 25 cm. This stunning piece would make an exceptional addition to any collection of historical art.