Moeck Rottenburgh 429 Alto Recorder - Grenadilla

450 EUR

Signature : Moeck Rottenburgh

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Other

Length : 31.5 cm

Description

Moeck Rottenburgh 429 Alto Recorder - Grenadilla with Genuine Ivory Rings - Perfect Condition - 1970s/80sFor sale is an exceptional Moeck Rottenburgh model 429 alto recorder in F, crafted from dense, beautifully grained grenadilla (African blackwood) -- a rare feature reserved for Moeck's highest-grade instruments Designed by Friedrich von Huene after original 18th-century instruments by Jean-Hyacinth-Joseph Rottenburgh, this recorder offers the warm, rich tone, superb intonation, and expressive response for which the Rottenburgh series is world-renowned.Features:Model: Moeck Rottenburgh 429 (Baroque/English fingering, alto in F)Material: Grenadilla (African blackwood) with genuine ringsLength flute 31.5 cm3-piece construction with corked tenonsOriginal Moeck

Dealer

Art Classique
curiosités, art premier et Asiatique
Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740

brown hard case with green felt liningComplete with original cleaning brush, cork grease container, model tag, fingering charts, and care leaflets in multiple languagesMade in Germany, ca. 1970s-early 1980sCondition:This instrument is in perfect, collector-grade condition. The wood is crack-free, the rings are intact with no shrinkage or discoloration, and the cork joints are clean and firm. It has been meticulously stored and shows minimal signs of play. The bore, block, and windway are pristine.Provenance:Includes original paperwork and accessories, adding to its authenticity and collectible value.