Description

A Charming 19th Century Victorian Period two-part Mahogany Military Cabinet on Secretary ChestA mid-19th century, early Victorian period two-part mahogany military cabinet on chest, featuring a secretary section. The upper cabinet has a brass-trimmed top and two paneled doors that open to reveal two height-adjustable shelves. This upper cabinet sits atop a large mahogany chest with twin brass carry handles on each side. The well-figured top has a drop-front secretaire drawer, fitted with its original drawer stopper, pigeonholes, small drawers, and a writing section, above four graduated oak-lined drawers. Each drawer is fitted with original brass military inset handles, with brass bounds on the sides, and the piece stands on turned bun feet. This antique military chest retains its original finish, which has
