

Wedgwood Lustre -- Pair Of Owl Bowls By Daisy Makeig-jones, Z4564, Circa 1915

800 EUR

Signature : Wedgwood, Makeig-Jones

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

An elegant pair of Wedgwood blue lustre bowls, designed by Daisy Makeig-Jones circa 1915, pattern Z4564. Iridescent powder blue ground with gilt owls perched on a branch, wide all-gilt vegetal border. A rarely encountered feature: one of the bowls is marked as a special order for James Powell & Sons (Whitefriars Glass Works)--a well-known London retailer that offered Wedgwood pieces alongside its own glass and stained glass, stamping its mark after production. Double-marked pieces are rare and highly sought-after. Extremely rare, unique, and highly sought-after pieces, they represent an exceptional opportunity to enrich a Wedgwood or early 20th-century British decorative arts collection. Dimensions (each): D 15.2 cm; H 4 cm Condition: Excellent early condition;

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

luminous lustre and gilding, no chips, cracks, or restorations. Any reflections visible in the photos are related to the luster glaze and are not defects. Please examine the attached photographs carefully, as they are an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance.