Description

A striking and rare Murano art glass sculpture featuring three stacked, tilted vase forms seamlessly joined into one dramatic vertical composition. Executed in rich aqua-blue (blu acquamarina) glass, the piece showcases the bullicante technique -- a grid of perfectly controlled air bubbles suspended within the glass, adding depth and visual texture. Exceptional craftsmanship is evident in the thick, crystal-clear outer casing, flawless bubble alignment, and perfectly polished rims and pontil base. The three vessel sections are hot-joined during production, not glued, demonstrating the skill of an experienced master glassmaker. The vibrant blue fades subtly into the clear casing, catching and refracting light in a way that highlights both the sculptural form and the bubble inclusions. This
