

Blanc De Chine Figure Of Guanyin - China, 17th Century Late Ming Dynasty, Circa 1640-1660

2 600 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 14,8cm

Description

'Blanc de Chine' Guanyin in porcelain, seated on a pierce rock. Her right hand is resting on her knee. The end of her left leg is not visible, although her crossed leg can be seen. The hand is particularly long and the fingers particularly detailed compared to a similar model. The guanyin is covered with a creamy glaze. China, 17th century Late Ming dynasty Circa 1640/1660. Height: 14.8cm For a similar model, see- Marchant, Blanc de Chine Exhibition, 1985, Fig.6, p.9- Marchant, Blanc de Chine Exhibition, 2006, Fig.10, p.24- Marchant, Blanc de Chine Exhibition, 2014, Fig.26, p.54- Detroit Institute of Art, 63.182 Very good condition, a flaw in the enamelling of the hand on the part that joins it to the body, the hand must therefore have been professionally refixed (the hands were made

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011

separately then added to the body and fixed, then the whole enamelled) so no breakage. More informations and photos on request.