Description

Magnificent pair of white marble columns with fine gray and gold veins, offering timeless elegance and undeniable architectural charm. Their slender line, resting on a square base and topped with a refined capital, makes them perfect pieces to enhance an entrance hall, frame an opening or create a decorative display. Refined work, probably from the end of the 19th or beginning of the 20th century, testifying to high-quality craftsmanship. Ideal for lovers of classic decoration, but also very elegant in a contemporary interior as an accent piece. Height: 235 cm Base: solid marble square
