Paul Van Hoeydonck, Screenprint 'ippa' Pop Art N42/110, 1987

750 EUR

Signature : PAUL VAN HOEYDONCK

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 60

Height : 81

Depth : 3

Description

Paul Van Hoeydonck, Pop Art screenprint No. 42/110, made on ARCHES paper for 'IPPA', 1987DimensionsWith frame: 81 × 60 cmWithout frame: 73 × 54 cmArtist - Paul Van Hoeydonck (1925-2025)Paul Van Hoeydonck was a major post-war Belgian artist, born in Antwerp. A figure of European modernism, he explored abstraction, light, industrial materials and Pop Art. His most famous work, Fallen Astronaut, is the only sculpture ever placed on the Moon (Apollo 15, 1971). His protean work combines science, humanism and futuristic aesthetics. He is now considered one of the pioneers of spatial art and the Belgian avant-garde.Packaging and Delivery CostsCollection in gallery: FreeDelivery in Belgium: EUR70Delivery in France: EUR130Delivery in Europe: EUR180Delivery in

Dealer

Galerie Pignolet
20th century objects and furniture
Mobile : 0032 498 295 815

53 Chaussée de Waterloo
Namur 5000

the rest of the world: EUR350