Description

An attractive Wedgwood lustre Antique Bowl, Z5068, c.1915, designed by Daisy Makeig-Jones. The exterior displays a Powder Blue lustre ground with finely painted multicolour butterflies, the interior lined in iridescent Mother-of-Pearl lustre with a single butterfly at centre.

Makeig-Jones' butterfly motifs are prized for their naturalism and color balance, qualities that made her one of Wedgwood's most celebrated designers.

Size: Height 8 cm, diameter 12 cm

Condition: Excellent antique condition, with pale staining inside not detracting from display.
