Description

Village sceneSigned and dated bottom right : Ingouf Junior 1781.Etching and burin, engraved by Ingouf François Robert, dit le Jeune (1747 Paris- 1812 Paris).Ingouf was a student of Flippart. The engraving is after a work by Charles Benazech (1767 London-1794 London). This artist, at the age of 15, went to Rome; on his return he stayed in Paris, where he worked with Greuze. He made his name by four paintings representing the last days of Louis XVI. (Source : Benezit).Very nice proof. Perfect condition. This work has been restaured by a professional & accurate restaurer.All our old prints are offered in good condition. When necessary, they have been restored by a professional restorer.The mounting is custom made, done as they used to do in the past, with hand-laid ink wash, in acid-free
