Louis XVI marquetry chiffonnière table from the end of the 18th century. It opens on the front with three drawers, each drawer has a lock with a working key. The four square-section sheathed legs end in a shoe with casters. Very nice marquetry work on this small piece of furniture in very good original condition, fully revarnished. The three drawers are covered with a floral fabric in the style of the 18th century. Please note: the locks and keys are later.
