Description

Three-row cultured pearl bracelet, white gold clasp set with tourmaline and diamond surround
Superb bracelet composed of three rows of natural cultured pearls, carefully knotted and presenting a beautiful, regular and luminous orient. The whole is closed by a large 18-carat white gold clasp, Belgian-made, entirely handmade in the 1950s. This clasp, with openwork decoration on the reverse, is adorned in its center with a natural green tourmaline of approximately 4 carats, enhanced by a surround of 24 diamonds for a total weight of approximately 0.50 ct. The elegance of the setting and the quality of the stones make it a refined piece of jewelry, perfectly representative of the Belgian taste of the 1950s for precious and balanced jewelry.
