Description

Very beautiful pair of baroque putti, wood carved in the round, with sublime polychromy, partially gilded with gold leaf. The two reclining cherubs resting on clouds, endowed with gilded wings and draperies enhanced with gold. Finely modeled faces with rosy cheeks, bodies rendered with a lively naturalism. Original polychromy and gilding largely preserved. High-quality work from the entourage of the Munich Baroque workshops, probably in the circle of Johann Baptist Straub or Ignaz Günther.
