Description

Large Portrait of a Man from the 60s. Surprising portrait of a man in a dark suit dating from the 60s. This is a large, very finely executed oil on canvas depicting a man posing in a dark suit in front of a column and carrying a cigar in his left hand. The painter was able to capture in this portrait all the physiognomy and character of this man, apparently self-confident and in full social success: perhaps a businessman, a composer, a notable??? François Mitterrand? I'm joking a little! Beautifully framed, it is signed and dated 1957 or 1959. Signed Vidal? A large oil on canvas of beautiful quality, in excellent condition. Dimensions: 97 cm and 80 cm for the canvas alone, 138 cm and 120 cm for the canvas alone. We deliver and ship all over the world, please contact us for a precise quote.
