E. Delabriere (1829-1912) Partridge Sculpture Gilded Bronze

580 EUR

Signature : Edouard Delabriere (1829-1912)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Edouard Delabriere (1829-1912)Richly and finely chiseled bronze sculpture with a golden patina, depicting a partridge.Veined and molded green marble base. Signature incised in the bronze "E Delabriere"Excellent condition. This may be the bronze entitled "Partridge calling on its sown fields"Dimensions length 17 cmHeight 15 cmWidth 12 cm*Delabrière Edouard:His works, often cast in bronze, regularly appeared at the Salon, from 1848 to 1898. They reveal a marked penchant for hunting scenes, whether they are the work of man or animals. Delabriere is also the author of a pediment model for the Louvre, on the theme of horse riding. *Extract from the dictionary of sculptors, Pierre Kjellberg, LES BRONZES DU XIXE SIÈCLE.

Dealer

Antiquités Francois frères
General dealer,
Tel : 06 62 11 26 49

18 place de la République
Chalon-sur-saône 71100