

Antique Iron Decanter, Pourer, Bottle Holder, 19th Century

300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Height : 18.5 cm

Description

Antique Iron Wine Bottle Pourer / Cradle, 19th Century

A finely crafted antique mechanical wine pourer in wrought iron, complete with aged patina and original crank handle. This elegant device was designed to securely hold a wine bottle, allowing for smooth and controlled pouring without disturbing sediment -- an essential tool for serving fine aged wines and ports.

The adjustable screw mechanism tilts the bottle gradually, ensuring precision and ease of use. Standing 18.5 cm high at the center, it is a practical yet decorative piece, ideal for table service. Its authentic wear and surface oxidation add to its rustic charm and attest to its age.

Dimensions: Height (center) 18.5 cm

Material: Iron, painted with aged patina

Dealer

Art Classique

curiosités, art premier et Asiatique

Tel : email : aze@pandora.be

Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740

Condition: Good antique condition, with wear consistent with age and use

A functional and decorative collectible, perfect for wine enthusiasts, sommeliers, and collectors of antique tableware.