Description

Exceptional set of five antique towels in pure damask linen, from Germany, with a remarkable weaving quality. These towels are distinguished by: Their new condition of use: they have never been used, which is extremely rare for this type of old linen. A bright and refined damask, with elegant motifs, typical of the beautiful Germanic weavings of the early twentieth century. A finesse of execution and a flexibility of the linen that testify to a high-end household linen. Their elongated size (48 x 113 cm), perfect as a hand towel or face towel. Each towel is finished with its small original hook link, a practical and elegant detail that has become rare today. Total weight of the lot: 560 grams. These towels, preciously preserved in a wardrobe, represent a real collectable piece in antique household linen,
